MARCH

“Breaking The Code,” March 10-12 at 7:30 p.m., March 13 at 2 p.m.; West Shore Community College - Center Stage Theater, 3000 N. Stiles Rd., Scottville. westshore.edu. “Breaking The Code” tells the story of a mathematical genius, Alan Turing (as portrayed by Derek Jacobi in the London production) who, assigned to the top secret Bletchley Park England during World War II, was responsible for designing the first computer, which enabled the allies to crack the German Enigma code and, some would argue, win the war.

St. Patrick’s Day Celebration, March 12, downtown Ludington. downtownludington.org/stpatricksdays. A variety of St. Patrick’s Day events await, including an Irish Jig 5K Run at 9:30 a.m. starting at Ludington CrossFit (on-site registration at 8:30 a.m.), Shamrock Parade at noon on Ludington Avenue, “Irish I Was Shopping” with downtown businesses open 10 a.m. - 6 p.m., and an evening pub crawl.

Sandcastles Children's Museum Spring Carnival, March 18, 5 – 8 p.m., Community Church, 109 N. Harrison St., sandcastleschildrensmuseum.com. This carnival features games and prizes, a cake walk, balloon animals and face painting as well as food concession with healthy dinner choices so families can make it a full evening event.

LUDROCK's Girls Rock 2016, March 19, 7 p.m., Ludington Area Center for the Arts, 107 S Harrison St., ludrock.com. Sponsored by the Zonta Club of Ludington Area, this first-time evening event of "girl power" celebrates women through musical performance and spoken word. Local female musicians, singers and artists of all ages will perform live. Between musical performances, local women from various walks of life will tell short stories of accomplishments, perseverance, overcoming obstacles, activism and contributions to the local community. Follow the Facebook event page for the lineup.

APRIL

Bria Skonberg, April 28, 7:30 p.m., West Shore Community College - Center Stage Theater, 3000 N. Stiles Rd., Scottville. westshore.edu. Bria Skonberg is a catalyst for all things jazz. Hailing from Western Canada and now living in New York City, award-winning trumpeter/vocalist/ composer Bria Skonberg is "poised to be one of the most versatile and imposing musicians of her generation." - Wall Street Journal.
